

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Introduction

We take privacy issues relating to users of our web sites seriously. We respect your personal information and will hold that information as required by current Data Protection legislation.

This privacy policy explains what information we will collect about you, how we will use it and the steps we will take to ensure that it is kept secure. If you have any questions about this privacy policy or the privacy practices of this site you can contact info@portablechunks.com.

By using this web site you consent to us collecting and using personal information about you on the terms set out in this policy. We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time, so please check back here regularly.

What information we collect

When you register for a Portable Chunks 90 – minute session you will supply us with personal information about who you are and where you live. This information will be used for administrative purposes. For example, we will use it to contact you with information about the registration process, to help us identify your needs or specific business requirements and to provide you with tutor support and guidance. They will also be used for updating you with our services and products that may be of interest.

Cookies

We also use session cookies to record information about your visit to the site. When you log on to Portable Chunks we will temporarily place a small identification number known as a cookie on your computer's hard drive. This allows us to identify you and track your progress whilst you are using the site.

The cookie is not permanently stored on your computer; it is deleted when you log out. Session cookies are an integral part of the Portable Chunks software and are used for educational audit purposes. We cannot offer an opt-out, other than the choice not to participate in Portable Chunks.

Data Control

The information that you supply when subscribing to any Portable Chunks course or service and the information that we collect from the session cookie will be stored by our parent company Portable Group Ltd who is the Data Controller acting on behalf of Portable Chunks.

How we will use your information

We will use your information to help us improve our site. We may supply aggregated statistics about the use of our site to third parties, but these statistics will not directly identify you.

We will also use your information to tell you about any of our offers, products or services that we think might interest you. From time to time, we will send you targeted advertising and marketing messages on behalf of ourselves. We will not share your information with third parties.

By supplying us with your information you confirm that you do not consider use of your information in accordance with this Privacy Policy to be a breach of any of your rights under the Telecommunications (Data Protection and Privacy) Regulations 1999.

You should be aware that if we are requested by the police or any regulatory or government authority investigating suspected illegal activities to provide your personal details and/or information concerning your activities whilst visiting this site, we shall do so.
